INFORMATION BULLETIN FOR ADMISSION OF FOREIGN STUDENTS
TO
COMRAT STATE UNIVERSITY

There are 4 faculties at Comrat State University: The Faculty of National Culture, Economics, Law and Agrarian Technology.

The University carries out activities in the field of higher education on the I cycle - Licentiate and on the II cycle - Master's Degree.

Students - foreigners have the opportunity to get more than 8 specialties on the I cycle - Licentiate and more than 6 specialties on the II cycle - Master's Degree.

As part of the Bologna process for the integration of educational systems, student and academic mobility has been activated, thanks to the participation of the university in the projects of the European Commission funds: ERASMUS +, ERASMUS MUNDUS, TEMPUS, DAAD, as well as the American Fulbright program, the mobility of teaching staff and students is possible.

To consolidate knowledge in educational programs at the university, there are: Center for Continuing Education, Center for Information Technologies, Business Center, Innovation Incubator "InnoCenter", Center "Euraxess", Information Center of the European Union, Educational Center for modern technologies for civil servants, Center for initiative youth. Also, the University has a number of centers for the study of the language and culture of a number of foreign countries, which are open with the assistance of the Embassies of Germany, the USA, Great Britain, Turkey, Azerbaijan, Hungary, Romania, Greece, etc. There is a student self-government at the university, which represents the interests of students, organizes leisure activities by holding evenings of rest, discos and other events. There is a comfortable hostel and laboratories at the university, as well as the opportunity to train and restore physical fitness in the sports complex of the university.

The preparatory department at the university was created and exists to prepare foreign students for study at various faculties of the university. The program of the Preparatory Department is designed for 10 months. Students master the Russian language to the extent that allows them to feel comfortable in Moldova in all spheres of life. The achieved level of the Russian language is more than sufficient to start studying disciplines in their chosen specialty within the framework of the University.

Experience shows that students who have completed training at the Preparatory Department are easier to study in their chosen specialties with the right to choose the language of instruction.

Classes start October 1st. Admission to the Preparatory Department of the University does NOT require passing entrance exams.
